

Friends of St Lawrence

Sadly, The Friends of St Lawrence were unable to run a Plant Sale this year because of social distancing regulations, but some plants that had already been grown for it, were sold or distributed to people who were able to use them so not too much went to waste. Thank you especially to Paul Ratcliffe for organising that.

Revd. Caroline Hallett, Chair of Friends of St Lawrence